

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Wednesday, October 16th – Men's Breakfast
10:00 AM at John's Restaurant
- Sunday, October 20th – World Food Sunday
Let's "Fill the Van" We will have a vehicle at the front entrance to the church next Sunday and we would ask that you bring along non-perishable items for the local food banks As always, Thank You for your support
- October 22nd & 23rd – Beef Pies - Sign Up Sheets on the back table

You will have received a little card inviting you to our FALL Bazaar on Saturday, November 9th

There are extra cards available on the back table and we invite you to share these with family & friends

- Should you have items for the Bazaar, feel free to drop them off at the Church. For anyone who has gently used items such as – jewelry, purses, perfume for the Women's Boutique – contact Penni Steele or Carole Danby-Searson for more info
- Our Christmas Outreach program will be coming up soon. There is an envelope in your envelope box or you may simply put your donation into a regular envelope and drop on the collection plate. As always, your contribution makes the difference in how many people we can support, and we Thank You for your continued support.

HIGHLIGHTS from OFFICIAL BOARD

- We have submitted and been approved for all our paperwork with respect to Pastor Roxanne's extension of ministry here at LRW
- Our Secretarial position will remain as is for the time being
- Our Treasurer reports that we are in a good financial situation at this time due to no costs for office responsibilities and no Choir Director costs as well as other lower than expected expenditures at this time
- Our Financial analysis indicates that our General givings are below the budgeted amount required each week – it is hopeful that up- coming services will balance this out by the end of the year
- Several maintenance items have been done or will be done by the end of the year
 - Ceiling in annex of Church repaired and repainted
 - Mortar repointing of the brickwork
 - Eavestrough Cleanout
 - Additional Lighting at the front of the church
- Looking to create a service planning committee to streamline the various responsibilities for our church services and activities
- Pastor Roxanne will be off October 28th through to November 7th
 - Rev. Jill Rogers will conduct services

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Wednesday, October 16th – Men's Breakfast
10:00 AM at John's Restaurant
- Sunday, October 20th – World Food Sunday
Let's "Fill the Van" We will have a vehicle at the front entrance to the church next Sunday and we would ask that you bring along non-perishable items for the local food banks As always, Thank You for your support
- October 22nd & 23rd – Beef Pies - Sign Up Sheets on the back table

You will have received a little card inviting you to our FALL Bazaar on Saturday, November 9th

There are extra cards available on the back table and we invite you to share these with family & friends

- Should you have items for the Bazaar, feel free to drop them off at the Church. For anyone who has gently used items such as – jewelry, purses, perfume for the Women's Boutique – contact Penni Steele or Carole Danby-Searson for more info
- Our Christmas Outreach program will be coming up soon. There is an envelope in your envelope box or you may simply put your donation into a regular envelope and drop on the collection plate. As always, your contribution makes the difference in how many people we can support, and we Thank You for your continued support.

HIGHLIGHTS from OFFICIAL BOARD

- We have submitted and been approved for all our paperwork with respect to Pastor Roxanne's extension of ministry here at LRW
- Our Secretarial position will remain as is for the time being
- Our Treasurer reports that we are in a good financial situation at this time due to no costs for office responsibilities and no Choir Director costs as well as other lower than expected expenditures at this time
- Our Financial analysis indicates that our General givings are below the budgeted amount required each week – it is hopeful that up- coming services will balance this out by the end of the year
- Several maintenance items have been done or will be done by the end of the year
 - Ceiling in annex of Church repaired and repainted
 - Mortar repointing of the brickwork
 - Eavestrough Cleanout
 - Additional Lighting at the front of the church
- Looking to create a service planning committee to streamline the various responsibilities for our church services and activities
- Pastor Roxanne will be off October 28th through to November 7th
 - Rev. Jill Rogers will conduct services

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Wednesday, October 16th – Men's Breakfast
10:00 AM at John's Restaurant
- Sunday, October 20th – World Food Sunday
Let's "Fill the Van" We will have a vehicle at the front entrance to the church next Sunday and we would ask that you bring along non-perishable items for the local food banks
As always, Thank You for your support
- October 22nd & 23rd – Beef Pies - Sign Up
Sheets on the back table

You will have received a little card inviting you to our FALL Bazaar on Saturday, November 9th
There are extra cards available on the back table and we invite you to share these with family & friends

- Should you have items for the Bazaar, feel free to drop them off at the Church. For anyone who has gently used items such as – jewelry, purses, perfume for the Women's Boutique – contact Penni Steele or Carole Danby-Searson for more info
- Our Christmas Outreach program will be coming up soon. There is an envelope in your envelope box or you may simply put your donation into a regular envelope and drop on the collection plate. As always, your contribution makes the difference in how many people we can support, and we Thank You for your continued support.

HIGHLIGHTS from OFFICIAL BOARD

- We have submitted and been approved for all our paperwork with respect to Pastor Roxanne's extension of ministry here at LRW
- Our Secretarial position will remain as is for the time being
- Our Treasurer reports that we are in a good financial situation at this time due to no costs for office responsibilities and no Choir Director costs as well as other lower than expected expenditures at this time
- Our Financial analysis indicates that our General givings are below the budgeted amount required each week – it is hopeful that up- coming services will balance this out by the end of the year
- Several maintenance items have been done or will be done by the end of the year
 - Ceiling in annex of Church repaired and repainted
 - Mortar repointing of the brickwork
 - Eavestrough Cleanout
 - Additional Lighting at the front of the church
- Looking to create a service planning committee to streamline the various responsibilities for our church services and activities
- Pastor Roxanne will be off October 28th through to November 7th
 - Rev. Jill Rogers will conduct services